Re: USA v. Luis Parrales, et al.
1:19-cr-00663-ER

Your Honor:

My office represents the above-named defendant, Luis Parrales. United States Pretrial Services informs my office that they “reviewed the Order endorsed by the Court, but given that the order specifies that the employment will be up until May 17, 2020, we will need a new endorsed order that indicates that the defendant can stay overnight in PA for work-related purposes with prior PSA approval (not including any specific dates) so we no longer have the need to go back to the Court for modifications.”

As such, my client requests this Court’s permission to continue residing in Pennsylvania, at an address known to United States Pretrial Services, for legitimate work purposes. Moreover, U.S. Pretrial Services informs my office that “the defendant continues to provide employment verification & is in full compliance with the release conditions.”

The Government officially takes no position as this application. We appreciate the Court’s time in reviewing this letter.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Rosenberg
Attorney for Luis Parrales
